

Life is Unpredictable

Vel

WOULD MY FAITH OUTLAST THE TRIALS I FACED OVER THE YEARS? I KNEW GOD HAD A DESTINY FOR ME, AND I WANTED TO FINISH THE RACE...AND FINISH WELL. THIS IS MY TESTIMONY.

Imagine that you are married with children, a working professional, educated and successful. You come home from work with your nine-year-old daughter in hand only to discover that every single item has been removed from your home. Not even a mattress or pillow for your children to sleep on. Everything packed up and vanished. No word, no warning. Even the bank account has been cleaned out...robbed of everything.
